

Bathroom Reader

Volume 3, Issue 4

MARCH 15-31, 2005

March is Foot

Health Month

Feet are like pets.
They are happiest
when they are going somewhere.

Advertisement for Columbia Sportswear 2004

What is a peer-reviewed, scholarly journal?

Your assignment says to use only scholarly journals? Your question—Why?

These journal articles are written by experts and reviewed by people who know the subject. They look for hypothesis, methodology, conclusions and bibliography to see if it meets current research standards. Your use of these materials is imperative to get the very best information on your topic.

If you have questions, Ask a Librarian!

SPRING BREAK! YES, IT'S FINALLY HERE!

March 21-25

Drinking and Driving do not mix! 2 out of 3 automobile accidents involve drivers 18-25. And 21% of all fatal accidents involve alcohol. To have a safe spring break you have to be careful out there!

Check out CineFest India:the Best of Contemporary Indian Cinema at Valley Value Cinema, Appleton. On March 19, House of Memories, at 10AM.

March Events

20 Barbie Doll Day

22 First nursing diploma awarded in 1865

31 Eiffel Tower opens in 1889

Library Hours during

Spring Break

Mon-Thurs 8AM-4PM

Fri 8AM-12PM

Closed Weekends

National Women's History Month

This year's theme is "Women Changing America." For more information from the National Women's History Project, see <http://www.nwhp.org>.

In 2001, 47% of the mathematics degrees and 42% of the physical science degrees were earned by women.

In 1972, women earned 44% of the bachelor degrees. Today the number is 57%.

Wall Street Journal March 2, 2005

Check out the New York Public Library's Women's Studies website. This is one of the most important resource centers in the country.

<http://www.nypl.org/research/chss/grd/resguides/women/>

American Red Cross Month The Red Cross is also a religious symbol in some cultures, so Islamic communities use a red crescent for their symbol.

St. Patrick's Day On this day, everybody is Irish! Parades in Chicago and New York City and the Chicago River is green for the day

National Nutrition Month Don't forget to eat your fruits and veggies!