

Bathroom Reader

Volume 4, Issue 7

December 1-15, 2005

How do I cite a (fill-in the blank) in my paper?

Yes it's time to finish the semester-long project of writing your paper or finishing an essay or report.

The UW-Fox Valley Library has copies of the citation manuals on Reference for you to use.

Online at www.fox.uwc.edu/library, you can use "HOW TO CITE," a link at the top of the home page.

Or,

Ask a Librarian!

Literary Facts

The first book with 1 million sales in the US, was Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Dr. Suess wrote Green Eggs and Ham on a dare from his editor to write a book using fewer than 50 different words.

The Days of December...

1 Eat a Red Apple Day

5 Volunteer Day

12 Poinsettia Day

14 NASCAR
founded 1947

It's Cold and Flu season!

Hand Washing Awareness Week is Dec 5-10. Wash your hands and prevent the spread of aches, pains, and sniffles during the holidays.

Achoo! Bless you!

The dye used to stamp the USDA mark on meat is made from grape skins.

Aunt Jemima pancake flour, invented in 1889, was the first ready-mix food to be sold commercially in the US.

Stars & Stones Shop
for all of your Christmas shopping!

Remember the Stars & Stones Shop on campus for unusual gifts for your sweetheart, family and kids. For $.50 you can get a polished gemstone or a dinosaur or a super-dome popper. For more sophisticated tastes there are crystals, jewelry, star mobiles, and even puppets. What could be easier than to shop on campus and avoid the mall.

A honeybee must tap 2 million flowers to make a pound of honey.

A poem written to celebrate a wedding is called a epithalamium.

In 1945, at Harvard University, a computer malfunctioned because a moth was caught in one of the circuits. Since then, when something goes wrong with a computer, it has a "bug" in it.

FINAL EXAMS

December 19-22

1.9 billion Christmas cards are sent to friends and loved ones each year.