

Bathroom Reader

Volume 7, Issue 2

February 16-28, 2007

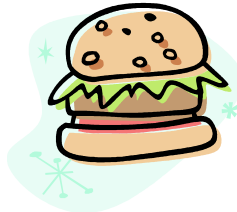

Engineers Week is celebrated the third week of February

According to the National Society for Professional Engineers, these are the 20 greatest engineering achievements of the 20th Century.

- | | | | |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Electrification | 6. Radio & Television | 11. Highways | 16. Health Technologies |
| 2. Automobile | 7. Agriculture machinery | 12. Spacecraft | 17. Petroleum technologies |
| 3. Airplane | 8. Computers | 13. Internet | 18. Laser & Fiber optics |
| 4. Water distribution | 9. Telephone | 14. Imaging | 19. Nuclear technology |
| 5. Electronics | 10. Refrigeration | 15. Household Appliances | 20. New materials |

WEB SITES OF INTEREST

What is the price of a “Big Mac” around the world? www.oanda.com

A World Clock with calendar?
www.timeanddate.com

ATF, NASA, CPR, COMPAC, MPH, and all those pesky acronyms can be found at www.acronymfinder.com

What about a class in...

Watercolors, Japanese, Yoga, Feng Shui, Spanish or Personality

Check out the classes available through the Continuing Education Office.

POISON IVY and GLOBAL WARMING

Duke and Harvard researchers piped carbon dioxide into a forest plot to mimic levels expected by mid-century. Poison ivy grew 150% faster and became even more noxious.

Utne Reader Nov. 2006

Organic Food Industry grows worldwide

According to the Organic Trade Association, the industry grew 16.2% in 2005 to a total of $13.8 billion. Worldwide the projection of growth in 2009 is $39 billion which is 2.5% of the total world agricultural production.

First Car with the steering wheel on the left side was first manufactured by Northern Motor Car Co. in 1907. It was also equipped with air brakes.

Fox Journal—THE campus newspaper available February 24 at newsstands around campus.