

Money Management for Life Student Learning Contract

Dear MMFL Student:

Congratulations on your admittance into the Money Management for Life personal finance course. As a student in this course, it is important that you have a strong commitment to your education and future career goals. This unique program will cover strategies so you can acquire the knowledge and skills to manage your money today and plan for your financial future. Because this program is sponsored by Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, we ask that you make a strong commitment to the program.

Students enrolled in this course are expected to:

1. Maintain an attendance rate of 85%;
2. Complete and submit assignments and activities as specified in the course syllabus;
3. Maintain a grade of C- or higher;
4. Attend coaching and networking sessions;
5. Collaborate with classmates on team projects;
6. Ask for help or support from the instructor, mentors, or program coordinator when required;
7. Demonstrate responsible conduct, judgment, and professionalism at all times;
8. Serve as a leadership advocate for the program among peers and potential program candidates;

Breaking your commitment to any of the above could result in the loss of the scholarship and all associated fees (to include charges for the e-textbook and tablet). Final grades and credits will be rewarded to students upon successful completion of the course.
